Brenda Maldonado-Rosas grew up near UC Merced in Livingston, California. She attended the University of California, Davis (Sin Agús) and earned a Bachelor of Arts in English and Spanish. She then headed to California State University, Sacramento, where she completed her Masters of Science in Counseling, with a specialization in Career Counseling. She lives by the quote: “I am a strong believer in planning as much as one possibly can, for ‘failing to plan is planning to fail’ (Alan Lakein). Having a plan in a plan can eliminate many unnecessary obstacles and problems in one’s life.”
